

JOB VACANCY

Do you want to be part of a dynamic team who work to promote the safety and well-being of women, children and young people affected by domestic violence and abuse?

As a result of the continued success and development of Coventry Haven Women's Aid we are looking to recruit the following post:

IRIS Advocate Educator

who will have responsibility for providing training to General Practices, ongoing support for health professionals and support and advocacy for patients.

NJC scale 6 pt18 - £29,269 per annum

37 hours per week

25 days leave + Bank Holidays

Benefits include ongoing training and development and Pension Contribution

For more information about the role please see the Job Description Form in this pack. To apply for the position please complete the application pack. Please note, CVs will not be accepted.

In order for us to monitor the effectiveness of our recruitment strategy we would also appreciate if you would complete our Equality and Diversity questionnaire. This will not affect your application.

To obtain an application pack, please:

download the pack from the 'Get Involved – Vacancies' page on our website at www.coventryhaven.co.uk or email: hlenton@coventryhaven.co.uk

Please complete and return via email: hlenton@coventryhaven.co.uk

Closing date: 4pm on 10th May 2024

Shortlisting and invitation to interview by: 14th May 2024

Interviews will be held from 20th May 2024

Successful applicant to start: ASAP

On appointment eligible staff will be expected to complete an enhanced DBS disclosure and provide references. We positively encourage applications from the Black and Minority Ethnic communities. We would particularly welcome applications from women who have additional language skills.

This post is applicable to women only. The role is covered by a Genuine Occupational Requirement (schedule9: Equality Act 2010). Successful applicants will be subject to a Disclosure and Barring Service check before commencing employment.